

Mother Daughter FAQs

Q: Who can attend?

A: Bring mothers, daughters, grandmas, aunts, nieces, cousins, and any important females in your life for the weekend.

Q: What is included in the fee?

A: Lodging, meals, and programming are included.

Q: What do I need to bring?

A: You will need to bring bedding (pillow, & sleeping bag or sheets & blankets), toiletry articles (including bug spray & sunscreen), towels and seasonal clothing. Bring normal camp attire that can get dirty or wet. There will be a "Zany Campfire" on Saturday night. Feel free to bring "zany" clothes for this.

Q: Where will my daughter and I stay?

A: Ladies will stay in cabins with 6 bunk beds (12 total beds) in one large room. There is one shared bathroom per cabin.

Q: How are ladies divided into cabins?

A: You can request a cabin mate if you are coming with friends. Otherwise, women will be group by the age of the children. If your family members have different last names, please request each other to ensure you are in the same building.

Q: Can camp you accommodate special dietary restrictions and food allergies?

A: Yes, we can accommodate most of these provided we know ahead of time. Please list special dietary restrictions and food allergies on the registration form. Also, for our chef, please indicate if there are vegetarians or vegans on the registration form. For further, questions, please call camp.

Q: What activities are offered?

A: Several activities are open throughout the entire weekend and include but are not limited to basketball, tennis, gaga, tetherball, and sand volleyball. Additionally, some activities, which require camp staff leadership, are scheduled into time blocks and may include climbing, zip lining, tie-dye, arts & crafts, canoeing, and archery. Schedules will be available in the main lodge and at check in.

Q: What happens if it rains?

A: Some activities may be moved indoors. However, come prepared to get wet and have fun. Climbing can still happen in a drizzle.

Q: Where do I go when I arrive?

A: Check in is located in the gazebo by the parking lot. At check in, you will find out your cabin assignment, sign a liability waiver, and receive your Mother Daughter t-shirt. If you arrive after the check in time, please meet us in the lodge.
